“ Uncle Skapper,
I met you&A'nt San-San when I was 15 years old and wildly in love with your nephew. You always had a laugh and something funny to say. As I got older ,the laugh stayed the same and the conversations became "keep it real". Then you became my Sunday School Teacher. Well,I already looked up to &listened to you so it was REAL easy to learn about GOD from you. The warm greetings I always got EVERY SUNDAY. This Sunday u weren't there and I was heartbroken.
This is gonna be a very hard loss to recover from. You've been my Uncle Skapper for over 27yrs.I will miss you ,but I will never forget your teachings and your love or kindness. At the end of every class your famous words that I'll never forget."Don't believe nothing I tell you,read it for yourself". Now you're living&seeing all the stuff u taught us about. Love and Miss you Rest in Peace. God certainly called ONLY the best,cause that's exactly what you are!
Love, Kim
