“ Thanks for your condolences, prayers, and well wishes. God blessed us with the gift of time as we watched our father/father-in-law/papaw deal with his illness in a private and dignified manner. We will truly miss his love, support, and smiling face. Dana, Greg, Dasia, & Damien

“ Dearest Marian, Dana, James and Family, My family and I are holding you in our our utmost prayers. I have sat where you sit now; right at Christmas losing your father. But know that your Christmas will still be joyous as the love of your father, your husband is at your side. You will feel him holding you up and getting you though as he has done for every tough situation. That love and care will never cease. Our GOD is so great. HE is a COMFORTER. And...it does get better. God's PEACE be with you. Love, Chanel Easton Gray & the Easton Family

“ I remember Togie in the early 50s when we use to play sand lot football. He was a very good player. we also use to stand on the corner with a few friend and harmonize and he was pretty good. Togie was more than a brother in law but also a good friend. May the Lord Bless him and his family. Buddy Daniels
