“ Our deepest condolences to the Lynum family. Growing up by the Lynums, I have such happy memories of spending time with their family. I remember Janice as kind, fun, and had the prettiest smile. Peace be with you.

“ Jan was a best friend that I only met six months ago. I felt that I knew her a life time. The Holy Spirit brought us together. I was dealing with depression and loneliness and something told me to walk my dog on a different path. That is how I met Jan. She was brave , kind, welcoming, accepting and fun. We had plans to cut up and “go out on the town”. That did not happen. Jan, you gave me hoo and showed me kindness. You were more concerned about others than yourself.

Be free, shine on, be at peace and know you were so special and so loved.
