“ Vickie and Pam I am so sorry to hear of your mother's passing. It had been quite sometime that I saw your mother and of course, we had a laughing good time as always when we met. I hope you haven't forgotten me. You know I won't forget you two. I go back so far that I believe you were a preacher's little wife. How many years has that been? I can't leave Pam out of the circle. Remember that your mother will be with you always in so many was.

“ Pam and Vicki, it's not many words that can be spoken when you lose someone so close, especially your mother. I remember spending many days at your house and your mother always treated me like her daughter. You will have times that will bring you laughter and times like this when you heart is heavy. Lean on each other, family and friends to help you threw this time. I send my love to the both of you and if I or my family could be of any assistance please contact us.
