

JEANETTIE LEE COLEMAN

May 17, 2014

Jeanettie Lee Coleman, 92, passed away Saturday, May 17, 2014.

She was a member of Browns Memorial CME Church.

She is survived by her cousins, Margie Holt and Charles Weathers; and a host of family and friends.

Visitation: 10:00 a.m. – Noon, Tuesday, May 27, 2014 at her church, 809 W. Chestnut St, with the funeral to follow at noon. Burial in Louisville Cemetery.

Arrangements entrusted to A. D. Porter & Sons, 1300 W. Chestnut St.

Tribute Wall

LD

“ To Mrs. Coleman's Family: I remember Mrs. Coleman and her husband from when I was a young girl, what lovely memories they were. I recall my Aunt Sylvia and Mrs. Coleman sitting at the kitchen table just talking about life. Now thinking back to simple times and conversations such as those makes me smile. Mr. & Mrs. Coleman always gave me and my brother Woo-Woo (Rufus Jr.) a treat of some kind and they both always, always had a smile on their faces. Now almost 50 yrs old myself, it's people like the Coleman's I wish our children today could have. Mr. & Mrs. Coleman were gentle, giving and loving. Just today I was informed of her passing. I am so grateful that she and her husband was a part of my childhood, very special memories for me. Even when I became an adult and I would see Mr & Mrs Coleman, they both always remembered me and smiled so proudly and asked about my parent... To God be the glory. Family Mrs. Coleman was a wonderful lady and I along with so many others will miss her. God Bless.

Lisa Dorsey - May 31, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ My deepest and sincere sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. Please find peace and comfort in Psalms 65:2. Again my deepest sympathy.

V - May 29, 2014 at 12:00 AM

JV

“ I will miss Ms. Coleman. I loved her so. "Granny", is what I called her and she greeted every morning when I came to work and bid me good night when I left. She loved my children as if they were her own. My children loved the time they spent with her. My son helped her with her last bingo game and it was a blast. May God continue to be with you all.

Jacinta Velasquez - May 28, 2014 at 12:00 AM

KW

“ Mrs. Coleman was a strong, God-fearing and caring person. You will be missed. On behalf of the Wilson family, we offer our condolences to her surviving family.

Kalinta Wilson - May 26, 2014 at 12:00 AM

AF

“ To the family of the late Ms. Jeanettie Coleman, may God be with each of you during this difficult period, especially Chuck and Linda who so unselfishly care for her like a son and daughter. You will always be blessed. Ms. Jeanettie was an angel and was loved by all of her former neighbors on Levering Street and Magnolia Street. She was always ready to help any one who was sick and needed her assistance. I remember how she looked after Ms. Virginia "Gin" Berry when her son was ill and looked after Ms. Gin also. I always enjoyed being in her presence and loved her company. My heart is sadden in losing her although I know we all must go, it seemed to soon, even at age 92. She is now home with her God whom she served all of her life, her mother, and her beloved husband, Mr. Kelsey. In loving memory of a life-long friend. Thelma L. Gibson

A friendMay - May 26, 2014 at 12:00 AM