“ Jimmy was a true professional and a role model to many other insurance agents. One of the few who had the courage and motivation to step out from under the company and open his own agency. He was deeply respected and admired. May God bless your family and give you peace during this time. Carolyn Connor, Former Manager, Mammoth Life and Accident Insurance Company

“ Jimmie it would take a dissertation to tell all of the good things you have done from encouraging me to take CLU classes to you being the first African-American in Kentucky to receive your Securities License. You have served Louisville well as an insurance professional, an example of a family man, and a friend. Your presence will be greatly missed. Hello to the Mammoth Family. Marvin Williams Atlanta, GA
