“ John was a great man, friend and neighbor. We would always visit often and talk politics, world issues and always neighborhood gossip. John liked that more than anything. I would also help him with Hazel if she had fallen. He liked me to help him because he knew I used to be a fireman and had experience with lifting people. When he would travel he would always bring me back some mutton. We always brought John food, especially chili and barbecue ribs. I will miss him, he was a good person and neighbor, and we loved him!
