“ I remember my sister and I were young and in Chicago we were going to ride with these two guys My Sister said, John these guy said, we can ride with them. John said, no. I will ride with yall. Because we were going the same place. John safely got his wife and her friends in a taxi and he and one of his wife's friend got in the car with me and my sister. From that day forward. I have called him The Bodyguard. He not only took care of his family. He took care of everyone. I told my Sister Whitney Houston wasn't the only one with a Bodyguard. Bodyguard you are truly going to be miss. Love you Raydonna , for always letting your husband to be kind to others. Praying for God to give you peace and joy of memories of such a great man and husband.

Words cannot express how deeply sorry I am to hear about my man John. He was so special. And even though I didn't see him much in recent years, I'm really going to miss him. He was a great neighbor, great husband, great father, and a child of God. One of the things I always loved about John was the respect and love he had for the elderly in the neighborhood. He loved them and they loved John. It's hard for me believe that I won't see him on the porch in the summers, but he has another porch in Heaven with his Heavenly Father.

I have been thinking of him a lot since his passing, and I will keep all of you in prayer. I love you John! God Bless you!! 🙏

Raydonna and family - GOD called one of his favorites home. John Guy (always had to say his first and last name together) was absolutely one of the nicest human beings and I have always been honored to call him a friend for some decades. ALL my prayers.
