“ I didn't get to work with John long but in the time I did he was a very friendly, funny, and helpful person. You could instantly tell he would be one of those people you liked and could count on. He was far to young to pass, but I hope the family can take comfort in knowing how quickly their loved one left his mark on others. He will be missed. Rest in Piece. May the Lord Keep and Protect you and your family.

“ They just don't make people like John anymore. I didn't know him as well as most of my colleagues, but he was always so kind and always smiling. Never hesitate to help in any way he could. The world seems a little colder without him.
You will be missed John!
