“ My sincere condolences to the family. I'm so sorry for your loss. Yet those words do not seem to be enough, I know I lost someone really close. What helped me is knowing the God of all comfort, "who comforts us in all our trials", he give you peace and strength to endure in the days ahead (2 Corin. 1:3, 4). It bought immense relief for me I hope it will help you. My heartfelt sympathy goes out to your family at this difficult time
