“ I liked talking to Joe Boy. He was a friendly guy. I remember having conversations with him on porch, on Hancock street.

“ So sorry to hear, hard to think of letting go. He was a "Pillar" of the family tree. remembering something from our childhood: When I was young I would hang up on him when he called to ask for daddy (Bobby Childs) cause it took him so long to say "let me speak to cousin Bobby"...he would call a few times then get out I'm gonna choke you... of course i knew it was him, I just liked making him mad... He will be highly missed. He loved our family.(Weathers). He taught us to love each other as well... I know someone will carry on as he did for his mother. God bless and keep you all as one day this pain will turn into just joy as we remember all the fun times and laughter he gave....
