“ Hi Joey. I enjoyed our conversations on Facebook and I am so glad we were able to keep in touch through social media. Your last words to me were the kindest and sweetest and I'm going to miss chatting with you. I love you and I'm so glad you do not have to suffer any more. Please say hello to mama and daddy, Aunt Barbara and Uncle Warfield for me. I love you and I'll see you in Paradise.

“ To the January Family. Our dear brother will be missed but not forgotten. For Joe lived a very good life, and always had a smile on his face. He loved most of all helping people, and always wanted everyone to get along. Remember this, that this old world is temporary but he lives at a new address that is free from sin. There is a song that my sister sang and it is "Trust and Obey For There No Other Way to Be Happy in Jesus is to Trust and Obey. Love, Faith and Joy from his little sister that he always called me even though I was the oldest. To his mother I deeply know how you feel as a mother because my daughter is home with her Father in Heaven. You are on my heart and in my prayers. Love you very much. Brenda Malone

“ I grew up with Joey. I lived right down the street on 41st. Joey was always a person who would take up for you in any situation. He was a good friend to have in your corner. I haven't seen him since we graduated in '83, but I used to love reading his comments on Facebook. He was very inspirational. I'll always remember that. Rest in peace Joey.

“ To Mrs Hodge and Family, May peace and comfort find you during this difficult time. Joey was a walking man, when I would see him, I would shout out loud "What's Up Joey" and he would wave everytime, sometime I would ask him if he needed a ride and he would say, "No I'm Okay" and continue on his way. Joey was one of the "Home Boy's" from around the way. God Bless
