“ Val and family. No words can be said or hug given that will erase the pain you are feeling. But even in your pain God still loves you and He is there to comfort you. We are never ready for love ones to transition on but to absent from the body is to be present with our Savior. May the peace of God rest on your heart and may you and your family find comfort in God's undeniable love. Please accept my condolences.

“ *Val,
Only God knows what pain you must be feeling right now. We never expect as parents to go before our children, but remember God is in control and has the last Say-So. I am praying for you and the family. I know your faith will see you through this time of sorrow. Sending love and condolences.*

“ R.I.H. Josh! Will never forget that awesome smile of yours! The way I always felt a lil more coo when you came on the scene making everyone smile and laugh! You always did your thang out there on the football field with big bruh! Even before I came to SHS and got to know you, I knew you as "#5 with the burners" on the field! You made your mark and will be missed! See you in Heaven Josh!

“ Josh, what can I say. I always thought you were a great guy. We had some good times at work. I'll always remember the pushup contests we had! You were just a nice guy to be around. Momma obviously did a good job and I can't say enough about her as well. You will be missed by so many. You will be remembered, I can promise you that. Your friend, Joe.

“ Ms Valarie and family, I am so sorry for your loss. You and your family are in my prayers. Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, May looking back in memory help comfort you going forward. Josh was a good person. He was always respectful and had a very pleasant attitude. But God had a better plan for him. Cherish the memories because he will always be with you. May God Bless each and every one of you. RIP Josh..... The angels are always near to those who are grieving, to whisper to them that their loved ones are safe in the hands of God.

“ Val and family,I am so sorry for your loss. May God bless you and your family in this difficult time.I'm no longer by your side, But there's no need to weep;I've left sweet recollections, I'm hoping you would keep.Eternal joy and memories Stay in our hearts forever,Strengthening our special bond that parting cannot sever.Now it's time to journey on, So let your faith be strong,For I am in a better place...I'm home where I belong. And if times of loneliness Bring sorrow and dismay,Don't despair, for I am there... Just a Memory Away
