“ I always admired and respected the closeness of the Kidwell family. Erin spent a lot of time with us when she was a child because she was a great friend of Natalie's and Erin would often talk about the closeness she felt with her brother and sister. May the memories of Joshua be a blessing to the family.

“ This is so sad. There is such sadness, but whenever I think of Josh, I think of a smile. Josh was the type person that you just looked forward to seeing. I knew I would smile and be entertained if I chose to sit next to him or saw him anywhere. I have memories of his stories from Spain. He loved that experience and would light up and talk so much about all he experienced and saw on that trip. It seems like Josh LOVED so well and was so comfortable and confident because he was so WELL-LOVED. He knew WHO he belonged to...The Kidwell family was HIS place and such a strong family unit. I always told Blaire that everyone who knew her was jealous of what an amazing big brother she had. I would say that he set the bar so high for any future boyfriend. I know that he made everyone smile, and I know that that he will never be forgotten... and will always be remembered for his smile and with a smile. I love you all- elizabeth lenihan

“ I had Josh in class here at Trinity when he was a junior. He was an absolutely joy to have in class...an original spirit, a fantastic smile, a guy who looked out for others...a guy who had a comfortable security about him that put others at ease, too.

News of his passing is very painful. I just thought the world of Josh. I'm so grateful I got a chance to know him during his brief but impact life.

“ I am saddened by the very tragic loss of this young man. I did not know him, however, I work with Alex Brewer and know from him what an amazing young man he was. I am so sorry, Kaelyn for your loss. You, are certainly in my thoughts and prayers. My prayers go out to your whole family Kaelyn as well as Joshua's family and friends. I pray that somehow, you will find Peace from God as He is the only one who can provide "A PEACE THAT PASSES ALL UNDERSTANDING".
