“ I was shocked to learn today my friend and former coworker had passed. I worked with JoWanda at GWIK 1994 to 1998. I was calling to wish her an early happy birthday, but instead got the shocking news of her passing. I remember our last conversation in September and I will cherish how she made me laugh. My prayers go out to her daughter and family. JoWanda was one of a kind and I will miss her so very much. Ann Jones, St. Louis, Missouri.

“ Jennifer, Irene, Valerie and Will, you all have my condolence. It is so difficult to lose a love one. I have been in your situation and I have felt the hurt of loosing a love one. I say to each of you that God knows best. Jo is in no more pain as I saw while she was in the hospital and talked with her over the phone. She talked about you all very often to me and she truly loved her family. She is smiling down at you all because she is now free of her pain and suffering. Bye Jo, I will truly miss you as one of my true friends. Neicy

“ JoWanda is at peace now. I worked with Jo for 22 years. She will be missed. To the family: A season for everything There's a season for everything and a time for every matter under the heavens: time for giving birth and a time for dying, a time for planting and a time for uprooting what was planted, a time for killing and a time for healing, a time for tearing down and a time for building up, a time for crying and a time for laughing, a time for mourning and a time for dancing, a time for throwing stones and a time for gathering stones, a time for embracing and a time for avoiding embraces, a time for searching and a time for losing, a time for keeping and a time for throwing away, a time for tearing and a time for repairing, a time for keeping silent and a time for speaking, a time for loving and a time for hating, a time for war and a time for peace. (Ecclesiastes 3:1-8)
