“ My Aunt Julia was a true woman of God. The epitome of grace and elegance. She always welcomed us with open arms. Visits to Louisville was a favorite childhood memory for me (especially during the Derby)! She will truly be missed, but I know she has transition from labor to reward. Well done thy good and faithful servant! I know they all at the gate waiting on you 😇

I will miss my mother inlaw and friend, she was love.

Ray A. Frazier - February 04, 2022 at 06:49 PM

Aunt Julia was a beautiful jewel. She would greet you with that soft voice, gentle smile, caring eyes, and extend her hand. She would give you a kind word and lean her head to the side. Her daughters took excellent care of her. We know her heart was sad as she missed her husband and baby girl but, she hung in there. She was sweet and kind. May we teach our children the traits of our ancestor. Wishing peace, comfort, and encouragement for all those that loved Julia Bell Blaine.
