“ I'm so saddened to hear of Ms. Katie's passing. Your mom was a cornerstone of my young life. I was filled with joy when she attended my mother's funeral in August 2008. It was wonderful to see her again and she even brought along a picture with all of us from the 1950s. Your mother touched my life in a very special way! Katie was a wonderful lady and I am sure she is resting with our lord.

“ Ms. Katie: I am sure going to miss you. How you made a difference in our Sunday School, especially our birthdays. I know we will see each other again in that great getting up morning. For now, I must accept God's perfect will. Thanks for the many times that we shared joy and laughter. For the family of Ms. Katie, I am praying for you as this is a road that I have traveled. Know that God is able and will see you through. Indeed, we know that some glad morning when this life is over, we will fly away and be at rest-no more crying, sickness. Just peace. Ms. Katie, Good Night; I'll see you in the morning. Judith La Rone Perkins, Jeffersontown, KY. 40299
