“ You had such a beautiful smile that warmed our hearts. You touched everyone's lives with your unique qualities. I will always cherish our late night 3 hr talks about life and being able to help you through life's tribulations.. Our families will forever be bonded because of the son you helped create that is your twin through and through. You also stepped up and became a father figure to Kayden who wasn't yours by blood but that never mattered to you.. we all cherish the time you allowed us to spend with you even though it was so short lived.. We will all make sure Kyran is well loved and taken care of how you wanted it.. love you Keegoo
