“ I loved our discussions on sports and politics at Hazelwood. (We always disagreed.) You never stressed about the little things and seemed to love life. I know you often brightened my day and for that I thank you. You told me you always wanted to ride a horse. I picture you riding a big beautiful steed on your way to the Lord. I'll miss you my friend.

“ Kenneth, I am truly going to miss you. When your brother, my husband, Clement died, you gave me words of wisdom and strength to carry on and I thank you for that. When we (your neice and I) visited you at the nursing home and and again at the hospital, you were so happy to see us that we all cried! I will miss you and please give my love first to Our Heavenly Father (because you got to see Him first) and then to your brother (because I miss him so). Your Sister (as you called me).
