“ I was blessed to have Laura in my life. She brought happiness and joy to the lives she touched here in Kokomo, IN. She was a gracious hostess when I visited her at home in Louisville. She will be forever fondly remembered by my children Mary and Patrick. Prayers for the family. The Lord took home an Angel to watch over us.

“ I was a neighbor of Laura on 43rd Street and was indeed saddened to hear of her passing. I will remember her active work in our community in our neighborhood Block Watch and big yard sale several years back. She was an integral part of our community. She always exhibited a pleasant and sweet demeanor. She will be missed.

“ Aunty Laura, Although the moments that we shared were few, the memories will last a lifetime. Over the years, you among notable others, have given me the inspiration to be the woman I am today. You helped me to embrace my curiosity of the world by limiting the boundaries that were placed upon me during my childhood. Therefore, I want to thank you for being a guiding light in my life. It was because of your light and other's that allowed me to shine mine. Aunty, you will truly be missed. I will love you always. Your niece, Michelle.
