“ My family will always be thankful to Lavonia for helping us adjust to our move to Louisville. She often made a cake for our dessert. Lavonia travelled with us to Las Vegas. She hit the Jack Pot when she put money in the stamp machine. At least one hundred stamps came out!

She was so proud of her daughter, Erma. And her grands, Carla and Lynn. You made her very happy.

I will miss her!

“ Dear Mrs. Erma,I am thinking of you, your daughters, and grandchildren. Your Mother Lavonia has been a dear friend. Our paths were brought together through our other dear friend, the late Elder Patricia Gill Turner. Three years ago, your Mothetr and I prayed with and helped Pat move toward her own transition in Richmond, VA. That spiritual journey brought us even closer.I will miss Mrs. Lavonia but I comforted knowing that she is now resting in The Lord's Care to the end of the age.Blessings to you her family and her many friends now and always.

“ Sellers family members -Our family will always remember and cherish our warm relationship with this fine lady. There are so many countless ways which Lavonia helped us and made sure we were safe and good. We pray for Lavonia and your family as she rises to heaven. No doubt she will see our father who passed away this past November.In deepest sympathy,Charlie Blocker and family

“ Aunt Lavonia ,my mother's sister, and I spoke by phone at least twice a month. She and I often shared recipes of the latest dishes we had prepared. My aunt could make the best rolls and they would melt in your mouth. We love you and you will always have a special place in my heart.

“ I never had the pleasure of meeting Carla's grandmother but I know she was a wonderful lady because Carla is a shining example of what the love of a grandmother can do.
