“ From the moment we met at Southern High School, and became friends, she embraced me as Family. She use to always correct me to let me know that I was family. I'm just getting the news a few days ago of her quick departure. When God places a person in your life like Legina, you have a true friend for Life . May your soul now rest in his eternal Glory.

“ I only met Legina a very short time ago at a family function, and even though I only spent time with her for a day, she treated me like she had known me for years. Her welcoming nature was not only extended to those she knew intimately, but even to people like myself who were strangers to her. Even though my time with her was brief, I am grateful that our paths crossed and I was able to spend some time with her getting to know her.

“ My the family find comfort in knowing this amazing strong young lady is rejoicing in the presence of our Lord and Savior. She fought a good fight. She gave so much to the citizens of Louisville in her daily work, even when she wasn't feeling 100% she was thinking of others.
