“ To the family of Lexus Ashford , you have my deepest condolences. My extend my prayers to each one of you. Lexus and I worked together , went out together and also where club members at one time. We had alot of "good times". She nickednamed me "Big Gwen" , I'll always cherish that. God has picked one his flowers to add to his glorious garden. To her children keep God in your heart , for He is the one who will sustain you , strengthen you and will keep each of you in His arms. May God bless each one of and your children. With much love to each one of you. Gwendolyn ("Blondie/Black Cherry) Jackson

“ *Life is not measured by the number of breathes we take, but by the moments that take our breath away...Squeak has left tremendous breath taking memories for her Family and friends to cherish. She was kind hearted with a winning smile and huge heart. May her Family be comforted by the great memories they created and shared together. Gone way too soon. Rest in Peace!
