“ To the Family of Lillian (Dolly) Phillips, My dear Precious Cousin,

Dolly, stayed as long as she could, but Lillian Phillips, had to leave that sickly body, she knew it was time to exercise her faith! She choose to be healed Permanently!

(Romans 5:15) NLT

But there is a great difference between Adam's sin and God's gracious gift. For the sin of this one man, Adam, brought death to many. But even greater is God's wonderful grace and his gift of forgiveness to many through this other man, Jesus Christ.

Death for a Saint is not a "Punishment" To be absent from the body means to be present with the Lord. No more pain, no more tears.

Goodbye Cousin Dolly, I will miss talking to you, You showed us all how to endure, How to fight the good fight of faith. It is now time for you to enter into your rest.

Little Cousins your Stroud Family has your back! Just call!

If Tears Could Build A Stairway By Karen White,

If tears could build a stairway And memories were a lane We would walk right up to Heaven And bring you back again No farewell words were spoken No time to say goodbye You were gone before we knew it And only God knows why Our hearts still ache in sadness And secret tears still flow What it meant to lose you No one will ever know But now we know you want us To mourn for you no more To remember all the happy times Life still has much in store Since you'll never be forgotten We pledge to you today A hallowed place within our hearts Is where you'll always stay.

I will miss you but never forget you, I'll see again one day!

“ My cousin, sister ,my friend. The Sunday before, she called 4 times checking on me here in Atlanta but I knew she was concerned about her test scheduled for that Monday thru Wednesday. I am glad to have shared all the jokes and laughter that we have in the latter years. I thank God for her legacy and pray that he covers Tara and the entire family. Dolly started the foundation and they will carry the torch. We love u family and are there for you family.

“ Leaving Louisville, Kentucky as a little girl I didn't have the opportunity to grow up around my auntie and be a part of her life. However it does not take away the memories I will always have of her, and the time I spent with her as a little girl. Auntie though I can't be there in person, you will always be in my heart, your voice will always be in my ears, your beautiful smile will always be in my eyes, and you will always be in my thoughts.

Love always your niece,
