“ Hi Aunt Linda...Wow, I really can't believe I'm right here, making a post on your obituary...

Didn't think this moment would have arrived so soon. While I am experiencing a myriad of emotions, I am also at a loss of real words that could adequately describe the rawness of this profound moment.

My 2nd Mama - because of how much Mama loved you, how you loved her, and how you loved me and Dana - that's who you were to us, our second Mother.

I always envisioned that me and you especially had more time together, to have more conversations and outings relative to our mutual affinity for metaphysics, career, and politics. Mama always said she still had a "Little Linda" through me, but that's quite the standard to live by!

You were top tier of a woman - your compassion, brilliance, and strength were absolutely unmatched.

You made everything look so easy and effortlessly graceful, even when life wasn't...

I saw your strength...

I'm hitting a block, because this moment is so profound to me (and Mama, Daddy, and Dana).

I just wanted to say that not only will I miss you immensely, but I promise to honor your life and legacy.

And lastly, I will take care of and look after Mama for you. I witnessed how you especially loved her, and I know you would want her to be especially lifted in this moment.

I will love you forever, Aunt Linda <3
