“ Thirty and forty years ago I lived nearby and use to work in Mrs. Lyons Browns garden. Lonzetta was always around and was quite a character. I would joke, cutup and laugh with her. Me being young, Lonzetta would always ask what I had been up to. After I told her of my recent adventures Lonzetta would say mu, mu, mu, my, my, my and shake her head while laughing and chuckling. She always, always had a glass of mint iced tea waiting for me. That was some of the best iced tea I've had in my life. The last time I saw Lonzetta was about five or six years ago, we had tea. What a beautiful and wonderful person, the gods blessed us when they gave us Lonzetta. She will be greatly missed, may she rest in peace.
