“ I knew Louis Sutherland because he worked in the Federal Building in Louisville next to the Courier-Journal where I was employed. We both volunteered at the Chestnut Street YMCA in the Black Achievers Program. Louis acquired the Epicurean Club for our 2006 O'bannon Family Reunion. Louis was a person, from what I knew, who worked hard, enjoyed life and gave freely of himself. He is a model for all of us. To Barbara, his wife, and Chenay, his daughter, the Anthony W Lanier family of Boston wishes you the best in your future.
