“ Hi Hope It's been so long since I've been able to attend Male HS events-- but that hasn't dimmed my memory of your bright smile, bubbly personality. I didn't know your husband, but to have had such a long relationship speaks volumes. Your extended family and sons who will surely stand by you in this difficult time. But know that you will be in my thoughts and prayers. Though separated by such a distance of time and miles, my memories of high school days and friends are fresh as ever. Hoping you find peace in every day- Nikki
