“ Dear Mr Vanderbeck - I had the pleasure of meeting Marcus relatively recently, just this past summer through a good friend of mine. I found him to be so incredibly smart, clever, funny, charming, and a real joy to be around. It was easy to open our home to him and give him a place to rest many times through the summer and fall and he always did what he could to generously repay the hospitality.

We will remember Marcus as a sweet, kind, generous, handsome, "old soul," of a young man who spoke of you and his family often and had nothing but wonderful things to say. His face always lit up when he talked about his daughter and I know that he loved her very much.

My heart was truly saddened to hear of his passing - another candle that shined so brightly with hope and potential that was extinguished far too early. My thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family with the hope that God's grace has welcomed Marcus into a place where he will always be young, always be handsome, always be your sweet boy.

I pray that grief will become peace and happiness as God's love comforts and strengthens you.
