“ Margaret was my girl. I loved her, with all my heart. I will miss our daily talks. I am so grateful that I got to hear her voice one last time a few days before she transitioned. I loved and appreciated her friendship. She was more like family. May God bless, comfort, and strengthen all her family and friends that she left behind. This beautiful lady, got her wings. With much love, Tammy Logan

“ To my Nana. Love never fails, and I know that I will love you forever. You always protected my children even when they needed to be punished by me. You were there for me when mom passed. You helped me keep life together, when I wanted to give up. I will never forget you being apart of my Christian life, and being there for my giant step for God. I can still see your smile and the words that you spoke into my life that day. I'm still smiling. I will never forget that prayer you prayed over Bree and I when we arrived last weekend. You knew you needed to cover us before you left for heaven, by praying traveling grace and mercy on your children knowing your journey here was almost done. Wear your crown Woman of God. Enjoy heaven until we meet again. I love you Nana!

“ To My Beautiful Godmother - you cradled me when I was without my mother. You adopted me and showed me how to love and accept love. You taught me the importance to extend utmost patience, kindness, and compassion. You inspired me to have a loving and open relationship with GOD. You finished shaping the marred pot of clay that had the foundation but needed the finishing touches. You will FOREVER, FOREVER, and FOREVER be in my heart!!

Loving you dearly, Charise
