“ Candace, I am so sorry for the loss of your mother. I was in her sister Laura Jo's grade but we also knew her though not as well as Laura Jo. Margaret's family was known and respected in our community. I am so sorry that I didn't know that your family lived very close to me in Louisville as I live on th outskirts in the town of Crestwood. If I had known, I would have loved to have been in contact with Margaret. You have a wonderful aunt in Laura. God Bless you and all your family in this loss.

“ To Margaret's loved ones, I knew Margaret in her home town of Jackson KY. Her family attended our church and school. Her older sister and I were close friends. I am deeply saddened that our lives took us to opposite ends of the world after high school, but glad that my emotional attachment to Margaret and her family never lessened. She came from a sweet, kind, generous, and loving family. As I read the condolences today I understand even more the generous, intelligent person I knew as a child and her adult gift to all who were blessed to know her. May she rest in peace. I extend my deepest condolences to her loved ones and especially to her beloved sister Laura Jo.

“ Candace, Just the other day I was talking about your mom with my husband. We both worked with your mom at Jeff High and our daughter developed a special relationship with her as well. Your mom was always a lady whom I respected. She was always in command of the situation. Our sympathies for your loss.

“ Candace: I worked at Jeff High with your mother for 18 years. She was such a strong influence in my life, both personally and professionally. There are few people that I admired and respected as much as your mother. She was an amazing woman and I know that she instilled those qualities in you. I will miss this dear friend.

“ I was lucky enough to work with Ms. Sellers at Jeff High for 8 years before moving into administration myself. She taught me a great deal about patience and compassion for our students. She called me last year just to check on me. She will be dearly missed.

“ Many people come and go in life, but some leave everlasting footprints. Ms. Sellars was not only an educator, but a dear friend to me. I graduated in 2009, but recently couldn't get Ms. Sellars off my mind, so I finally contacted her after a little work finding her information. My freshman year of high school was not without struggles. I had recently completed radiation after surgery to remove a brain tumor, and my right eye wouldn't open. There were many times when it was so difficult to face fellow students and teachers alike. There was however, one highlight of my day. I could ALWAYS find Ms. Sellars standing somewhere in the school waiting to greet me with a warm smile and a hug. This amazing lady was always there for me to give advice concerning anything from education to daily life. Her office door was always open to come in to laugh or cry. Ms. Sellars would always tell me that I was "the light in her day." In fact, she said this to me during our last phone conversation. Little did she realize, she was always the bright spot in mine. In my life, I hope that I may be able to make an impact on someone's life that is merely as wonderful as the one she made on me. I would like to share a poem I wrote titled "I Remember..." I remember a day when there was nothing left to say. She was too distant for a kiss; Her face- a smile I'll forever miss. Though I may not know much, I'm sure of this: The scenes of my life, she won't miss because she'll be watching me all the way; but I'll always remember that sad and lonely day when there was nothing left to say.

“ Candace, When Tammy told me about your Mom's passing, I was both shocked and saddened. What a grand lady she was. She led a life that leaves behind a powerful legacy--most of which rests in you!! It's my prayer that you will find peace during this time. Truly, though weeping endures for a night--joy WILL come in the morning. Love and prayers to you and your family.

“ Margaret was larger than life to all who knew her. A bright, caring , sensible woman that when she spoke ... You listened. She was an amazing mother ,true friend and master educator. Margaret loved her daughter dearly and was an educator that made a difference to her students...all of them. She demanded and got the best out of them and her Candace. Margaret had advice or sayings that we all knew were right and ones we should follow.I use them for my own daughter. Yes Candace she spoke the truth!We are all better people to have known her and I deeply appreciated how she allowed me to call her Candace my second daughter.She blessed this world and will be missed but her teachings will continue to live in all of us .

“ Candace, You have my heartfelt sympathy. This community has lost a dedicated voice in the field of education. She touched so many students' lives with a positive presence and is responsible for the success of countless youth who passed her way. She had a wonderful smile and always a word of encouragement for those who sought her advice and even those who didn't. I will always remember her subtle humor and our long discussions on life and of course, our children. Margaret left you with many wonderful loving memories to cherish and reflect upon. Keep them close to your heart. She will always be remembered because she left a beautiful symbol of her... YOU!!! God will surely sustain you in your darkest hours and sun rays will always let you know she is shining down on you. Warm blessings and prayers with a special dose of love to comfort you from the Turner family..... Aunt DeeDee, Dana, Michael and Jasalynn
