“ We fought this shared illness side by side, sharing something that no one else understood. The quick text messages on the bad days, and visits on the better ones. God knows how much I'll miss you and the encouragement we gave one another. You were my prayer warrior in this world and now you're on the other side. I don't doubt for a second that you're watching over us all and telling anyone who will listen about those great kids of yours! I hope your mom (Mama Sharron), kids, sisters, family and friends find comfort knowing there's a huge party going on in Heaven now that you've arrived. A life well lived, a good and faithful servant of the Lord. I'll miss you more than words can say. Save me a seat. I'll see you soon. I love you.

“ I am very sad today to learn that Mark... my brother n law passed away. I know he is in a better place. I wished we would have known so his family in Colorado could be there to share in his going away celebration. Mark, you are in a new place, a better place that God has prepared for you. You are safe in HIS arms. The Master's arm. The bond we shared will never be forgotten. You have struggle with your health for a long time and now you have new home, a new body, a new walk, new talk, new heart, new smile etc. You made me feel like I was the best CHEF in the nation because how you smiled and enjoyed all the food I prepared and cooked. May God Rest your Soul...give you peace and forgiveness of all, and all forgiveness towards you. Only you and God knows your heart, and Only Dawn and God knows her heart and that is all that matters. I will always remember our time spent, laughed, shared, together. How could I...our Birthdays were so close....Rest in Peace my brother...Always. PS...Do me a favor and give GOD a BIG HUG FOR ME and tell HIM I need HIM!
