“ I'm Lambert Johnson from Huntsville Alabama Mark was my cousin but he always seemed to me to be more like a brother to me, our dads were brothers, there had been quite a number of years since I saw him I person, when we reconnected we spoke over the phone and later connected on messenger so that we could see each other while in conversation today is 9/10/2020 I just was made aware of him passing this morning and I'll miss him so much I've been trying to contact him and now I know why I could reach him because we always gave each other a call back whenever there was a missed call, RIP Mark you'll never be forgotten and to the family sorry for our loss he will be forever missed by us all my God Bless each of you me and Mark always had a connection like siblings I just wish I could have visited him when I got back I contact with him a few years ago, I'll always cherish the times we talked on messenger if it was late and i was sleep i would wake up and think who is this, and it would be Mark and I would talk to him anyway that's just how it was
