“ To the Dunbar Family:

I send my sincere condolences not only to an amazing man and his wonderful family. I became acquainted with the Dunbar family as a struggling single parent in need of employment. Mr. Dunbar hired me and I worked faithfully for 3 years. I became acquainted with his beautiful wife and daughter. I worked with Martin Jr., a quiet, but dedicated and hardworking young man.

After 3 years, I decided to pursue higher education, and though he hated to lose me he encouraged me. It was a family owned business and he treated us like family. I recall there was a homeless woman that used to come into the restaurant almost everyday and told me "Whenever she comes in be sure to feed her." That was the kind of person he was. THANK YOU Dunbar family for all your kindness to me. BTW, I went on to obtain a master's degree and an LCSW: I serve as a therapist for the Wounded Warriors Department of Defense US Army@Ft Knox. You gave me my start...again, thank you!
