“ My heart is heavy for this loss... Deaconess Marva Calhoun, whom was fondly called "Mother Calhoun" at The New Vision has been and will be missed by us All. Mother was the sweetest, gentle, sweet spirited woman, that we respected and loved dearly. I will never forget her encouragement and nurturing shown to me. Rest on Mother and we shall see you one day on the other side. Gone but never will I forget you, Your Pastor, Bishop Kathie D Holland

“ Condolences to Marva's family. She was a thoughtful, concerned friend who made sure we stayed connected with the few remaining WSS, WV folk who remembered the Coleman/ Goble families. May you find comfort in knowing that she will be remembered. Joylette Hylick & Katherine Moore, daughters of Katherine Coleman Johnson.
