“ To the of Family of Mary L. “Pat” (Butler-White) Barlow: You are faced with the challenge of a loved one's absence. Cry to God for strength and guidance, and know that as soon as He hear your cry, He will answer you! He will give you strength when you are weary and increase your power when you feel weak. God is greater than any obstacle or difficulty you may be facing through these trying times. Cherish the memories that God has bestowed upon you. Open your heart, and by faith, receive God's strength and might. Allow God to empower you to live and overcome the challenging days ahead of you. When we pray with an attitude of faith, gratitude, and expectancy, it shows that we believe in God and in His Word, and that opens the door for Him to move on our behalf. You have the Brown's Family deepest sympathy and love.

“ Sorry to hear of cousin Pats passing. I did not know of her very well, but was happy to meet her during the time I lost my uncle and found her to be a very nice, sweet, and kind lady. Also found the family resemblance a joy and fascinating. I enjoyed the brief times we got to talk when she would call to speak to my mom. Will be keeping the family in my prayers.

“ My heart goes out to all of you all. You know that I love you. Aunt Pat is at peace. It's hard to handle right now but with each day it will get better. She is just a prayer away.

Love, Iris
