“ *To: Willa Mae, Dorthy and family, you all have my deepest sympathy. Even though I'm not there with you all, but I'm there in spirit. I don't have any remorse, because I came to see her in July and that I was on a mission when I came to see everyone, because I knew she wasn't going to be there when I come back again. I gave her hugs and kisses, You know Aunt Mary that I'm your name sake and that I will continue your legacy. I enjoyed making you fried pies and a carmel cake when I came home to visit you. I've always admired you and your style so Aunt Mary You still lives on. I'll continue to carry on your legacy with style and we will meet again. I Love you... Your niece Mary Chester. “ Several years ago, I remember my aunt using 'colorful' language during a 'discussion' to inform her remaining siblings (3 brothers, 1 sister) that she would outlive all of them. The firstborn of 12, her prophecy proved to be accurate. Now she can tell them "I told you so." She had a good life and will be missed by me and all who knew her.
