“ I was so sorry to read of Cathy's passing. She and I worked together at the University of Louisville's Office of Black Affairs "back in the day" and occasionally we'd reconnect at conferences, etc. She was very dedicated to her students and she will be solely missed. My thoughts and prayers go out to her family. Brenda Hart

“ "Rosebud" but truly a "Rose" you inspired me and many other buds to blossom and become productive citizens in this community and other places in this world! I love you and you will be missed but the seeds you planted will continue to blossom in life! God had choose to give you rest and you have earned your Crown!

“ Another mentor has gained her wings. My nickname for her was Foxy. I loved her authentic ways from her style of fashion, to her heart. She donated sick time for me to have surgery, shut her door to her office at KSU so we could have "unprofessional talks" lol. I remember her telling me "Life is hard baby but don't let anyone clip your wings". Mary Catherine Rosebud Harris because of you I was able to soar a little higher. Now it's time for you to take your flight R.I.P. To the Rosebud family I'm sorry for your loss. God thought it was time, the bud He planted had grown into the perfect rose.
