“ Great lady!! I was trully bless to have met her. I will miss the conversations and wisdom passed on by her. But I will always see her through her son and my Li'l Brother from another mother.

“ Praying comfort to you all. I miss seeing Ms. Mary out in her yard planting flowers, cutting her grass. The times we spent sitting on the porch. I loved spending time with her. I thank you all for trusting me to help look after her and for letting me buy her car. She was a blessing to me. God bless and keep you. Her neighbor, Cassandra Jones

“ I really wish I could be there with you all right now. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. Aunt Mary will always hold a special place in my heart. I will always remember the long walks we'd take when I was home on vacation with the kids. She's one of the reasons I enjoy walking outside now. I can't take a walk without thinking of her. She's in a good place now though. As much as I will miss her, I can't help but to rejoice knowing that she has finally reunited with Daddy, Granddaddy, Grandma, and Cousin Dan. RIP Aunt Mary.
