

Michael L. Flood

January 26, 1945 - October 16, 2022

Michael Lee Flood passed away at 5:57 AM at Norton Women and Children's Hospital at age 77, unexpectedly on Oct 16, 2022.

He is survived by Edwina Foster Flood, wife of 55 years, sons Morris Michael Flood, and

William Fitzgerald Flood; sister Rose Marie (Flood) Miller, Tracy Miller and Dennis Miller, niece & nephew, and a host of beloved cousins and relatives. Michael was preceded in death by his parents, the Rev. Morris Dewitt Flood, and Alice Marie Flood.

Michael was born in Louisville on January 26, 1945. He graduated from Central High School, attended Knoxville College, Bellarmine College, Spalding College, and the University of Louisville. He served in the Vietnam War as an honorably discharged Marine Corporal. He was a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. He was employed by the Louisville Courier

Journal for 40 years where he worked first as a sports writer and later as a photo engraver.

Michael loved painting abstract art, and watching westerns, and was an avid sports enthusiast!

We will miss him dearly and always remember the lessons that he taught us.
