“ All my childhood life it was you bringing joy and love. It was you making me(us) laugh til I(we)cried. My love for basketball started watching you and your brother James playing at Fairdale High school. I thought I was the biggest fan. We were always a close family I can remember you becoming a dad and how much each of your children made you light up. I’m sadden that time took so much away from us. I’m sadden that your kids and grandkids can’t make more memories. I look at my aunt Gwen who has stayed so strong keeping us together and once again she standing firm on Gods promises. I just want to hold her up. You being her first born you held something in her heart that no other could hold. I’m broken hearted, choked up, things changed time took so much. As my dad always says you can’t get time back. Now here we all have to say our goodbyes to one our favorite cousin. In all this sadness I have bits of joy. Joy from you seeing your dad again Aunt Beulah and Grandma and Granddaddy. Your body is healed, free of sickness, you are strong as you walk the street paved of Gold. I will see you again!!
To my big cousin you will always be our champ I hope you knew that.
