“ Happy Birthday Michael

We worked together and shared a great friendship for over 20 years on the golf course.

We were actually working together when 9/11 happened and I remember sharing that same shock and anguish with you. We discussed our families, your time spent in the military, your high school basketball career, we laughed and cried.

I was so happy when you finally kicked the cigarette habit and you were happy for me every time I shared a personal achievement with you. Michael was real, he was warm and he was kind. You always spoke your mind and everyone always knew where they stood with you. You were the greatest of friends and are deeply missed. My thoughts go out to your family.

*Love ya brother,
-Ollie-*
