“ I think about you often Monica. All the help you gave me with school supplies for my kids. You never asked for nothing in return. You brought steaks to the cookout and didn't even eat. You was never a selfish person. You was a true friend. I only know what I heard on the street about your passing but I hope whoever did that to you spends forever in jail or suffers in hell for taking a wonderful person like you away from this world. You was my true friend shorty.

“ Tonight I met the minister who conducted Monica's funeral (I was unable to attend). I cannot begin to imagine what you, her family are experiencing now. I knew Monica in 2010 and loved being in her presence. I can only imagine how much you all miss her. I especially want to say to Monica's mother how much she loved you. She continues to love you, even now. May she pray for all of us.

“ To the family of Monica White there are no words that anyone can say to change how you feel but my deepest sympathy for you all and I'm praying for all that knew her because it is truly sad that her angelic smile will no longer bless this world but I know she sleeps in heaven. For 20 plus years I've known her and she has always been a good person with a heart of gold. Praying for her children and her entire family. Earth has no sorrow that heaven can not heal.

“ To the family of Monica, There are not many things I can say during this tremendous and horrific tragedy other than I loved Monica. I met her years ago when she dated my uncle Darrell. She was good to me and my sister, lived with us, and showed us love over the years. I woke up one night while in the hospital as a child to find her right by my side. She brought me a doll to the hospital. She held and rocked me when my uncle died and assured me of his love. I say all that with a heavy heart as a testament to the goodness of her heart! She will be missed. I will pray for closure for you all. God bless.
