“ To the Bryant family - I am incredibly heartbroken to hear about Morgan. Morgan and I had classes together at UK, where we would talk about our classwork and help each other clarify what was going on! She would always talk about her blog and we would talk about fun things like our dreams in life, etc. We ran into each other a few times when we both moved back to Louisville and it was always so great to see her and see that she was doing well - something I could tell by her sweet smile and infectious laugh. I'm sad that we never went out for those drinks and catch up like we said we would. She will certainly be missed - praying for all of those who were in her life that they will get through this difficult time. Sibel S.

“ Dear Bryant family, I am so sorry for your loss. Morgan was loving, kind, generous, positive and she loved the Lord and her family. God blessed her with a huge heart and amazing fashion. She was bold, brave and beautiful. I cant believe she is gone but am thankful to rest in the peace knowing that she is with Jesus. Her voice was angelic and I know she is blessing heaven with that voice now. It is with a heavy heart that I remember her and a thankful heart that I remember we were friends. Rest in peace beautiful Morgan. I remember many chorus practices and several rides home together after school because we lived so close to each other. Morgan only had positive things to say about everyone. She made this world brighter and now heaven. With deepest sympathy and love, Kristin Newlon Hack and Matthew Hack
