“ I send our sincere condolences to the Cooper family on behalf of the Judkins Family. We grew up on Osage Avenue and became acquainted with them many years ago in 1963. They were always friendly and welcoming. Their father, Mr. John and mother Mrs. Pandora were always so nice to us. They all were; they were just that kind of family. We both came from big families so various ones of us children became friends with children in the Cooper family. You are all in our thoughts and prayers as you mourn the loss of Tyrone. God bless you all, and may God's peace be with you. Love, Mom,(now 95 years old), Evelyn, Loren, Don, Geraldine, (deceased), Dale, Tru, Jimmy and Cathy, The Judkins Family
