“ Janice, I know the void in your heart right now in losing your beloved grandmother. As each day passes by my prayer is that the void is filled with precious memories. She's with our Heavenly Father looking down on you and praising him for your presence in her life. I'm here for you. Your mutual birthday friend, Kimberly A. Cooper

“ My Deepest sympathy and prayers go out to Momma Janice and her family during their time of bereavement. Momma Nance. Your warm gentle smile will never be forgotten, the way you would hold and rub my hand will never be forgotten, and the way your face lites up when I walked in your room singing to you. "You are so beautiful to me." I know you have gone on to glory and God has an extra angel to watch over the family. You will be missed. I remember the way you smile at me and question me with your eyes. I Love you Momma Nancy and you will be greatly missed in the family as well as the many friends you made along the way. God gave me a sweet smelling rose the day I met you. I Love you and will do all I can to take care of Your Janice. Love Falesha, Darius and Vaughn.

“ I remember Momma Nance always cooking anything to my prefrence. Baking cakes and putting her finger in my mouth. Smiling saying, " taste this" and it would be so good. Just like her as a great Grandmother she was beautiful, enlighting, inspirational, devoted, loving and caring to all of us. I will always miss you tell God I want a spot right next to you. Love always Vaughn Maurice Hudson Sr. Aka Chicken Man.

“ Aunt Nancy I am going to miss you. I always enjoyed visiting you when u were in the nursing home. Watching u play bingo and how excited u were when u binged. Miss sitting outside with you watching the gold fish. Than visiting u at Janice's, u talking and smiling. I will always remember how you lit up when u would see me walk in that door. I love you. RIP
