“ Another year has passed our second holiday season without your presence. You are missed Aunt Nannie, Mother your sister speaks of you often. I have your many plaques and various tributes displayed in my home. I cannot drive by Treyton Oaks without wanting to turn in and visit. Rest well Aunt Nannie, you are with your parents, husband, son, sister and brother and last but not least my beloved brother Keith and our many extended family. Until I see all of you, I remain your nephew, Sebastian Bender

“ It has been over Two Months, yet I still miss my frequent visits Monday, Wednesday and Sunday. You always wanted me to bring you something although you claimed that you never did! I wrote your Obituary, I did you Proud, even though you wanted none of your many Accomplishments and Accolades, I slipped in a few! Your Sister, My Mother Is still holding down the Fort. Cousin Hester, is coming to join you and the rest of our family, her Wake and Home going is this Sunday. God's Got You Now! Rest Easy Aunt Nannie, Say Hello to all my People there. I got this here on Earth. It's All Good, Real Talk! Much Love, Sebastian!
