“ I want to send my condolences to the family of Nathaniel Brown. We grew up together at Royal Arms Apartments, where we had a lot of fun playing outside & in each other's house. As we got older our lives turned toward starting our own families. The last memory I had of Nathaniel was him showing up at our childhood apartments, where I still lived. When I opened the door I noticed that big smile of his! As we talked I realized Nathaniel was a man, who was excited that he was gonna be a dad. Vanal eespecially want you to know I am deeply sorry for your loss. I definitely know what you are going through, as I have lost my mom (your friend) & my dad. Just remember that we will reunite with our loved ones one day. If you need anything just let me know. Love, JR

“ Vana: You have my deepest condolences at the passing of your son. I can't imagine the heartbreak that must be yours during this time. And I also won't pretend to know the void that inevitably will be there in the coming days due to his passing. But I do know that our loving Savior will wrap you in His strong Arms and walk with you through each and every second, minute and hour. He's an ever present "help" in our times of grief. Love you much!
