“Gone but not forgotten. When I was a young child, individuals would always tell me, "You Are Just Like Your Daddy". That made me feel as if being like my Dad was a bad thing. Now in my older years, I'm proud to say that being like him has it's good points, some of which I use every day. Love You Daddy. Your Daughter, Alfredia Celestine Day-Clay.

“I remember growing up and talking to my Uncle Nathaniel and having fun. I'm glad I got the chance to visit him in August of this year. Please except my condolences for your loss. Renee (Niece from Baltimore, Md.)
