“ My goodness I had no idea that you had passed Nicole I have been looking for you to do my hair you know a ponytail. I was just looking through the obituary and came across your name and picture. Am so hurt that I didn't know and didn't get to make your services. You had been doing my hair since when you worked in Bacons back in the day. Praying for peace for your family!

“ Nicole was my hairdresser for over 15 years and we were both also Pres girls. I moved away in 2011, and when I would come Home to visit she always would make time to do my hair for me. You will truly be missed. Praying all of your babies find their comfort in the Lord.

“ I met Nicole when I was 19 years old working at Walgreens and she was worked across the street as a beautician. Shortly after, she be came my beautician, friend, and confidant. I've known this beautiful soul for 20 plus years now and she will be greatly missed!! I'm praying for peace for Rob and the boys!!
